The Sri Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple in Padubidri is a renowned spiritual landmark in coastal Karnataka, celebrated for its ancient origins and serene ambiance. Following a major renovation, the temple recently held its grand Brahmakalashotsava in April 2026.

Location & Contact

- Address: Padubidri, Udupi District, Karnataka - 574111.
- Phone: +91 (820) 255-5042 (General Enquiry)
- How to Get There:
  - By Road: Located on National Highway 66 (NH 66). It is roughly 25 km from Udupi and 35 km from Mangaluru.
  - By Rail: The nearest major stations are Udupi or Surathkal.
  - By Air: The nearest airport is Mangaluru International Airport (IXE), approximately 30 km away.

Greatness, Legends & History

With a history spanning over 1,100 years, this temple is considered a "Pavitra Kshetra" (holy land).

- Legend: Local lore suggests the temple has deep links to the ancient Alupa dynasty. A distinct feature of this temple is the dual prominence given to both Lord Shiva (Mahalingeshwara) and Lord Ganesha (Mahaganapathi).
- The "Udbava" Connection: Much like the nearby Pernankila temple, the Mahaganapathi here is revered as a remover of obstacles, and the site is known for fulfilling the vows of devotees seeking progeny or career advancement.

Architecture & Deities

The temple follows the traditional Tuluva/Coastal Karnataka style of architecture, characterized by sloping roofs (to withstand heavy monsoon) and intricate wood carvings.

- Main Deities: Lord Mahalingeshwara (Shiva Linga) and Lord Mahaganapathi.

- Sub-Deities: The temple complex houses shrines for Vanadurga, Subrahmanya, and various Daivas (local guardian spirits) traditional to the Tulunadu region.

Rituals, Poojas & Charges

The temple follows a strict schedule of Trikala Pooja (three times a day).

- Daily Schedule:
  - Morning: 6:30 AM – 12:30 PM
  - Evening: 5:30 PM – 8:30 PM
- Common Poojas:
  - Panchamrutha Abhisheka: Approx. ₹100 - ₹250
  - Ganapathi Homam: Approx. ₹250 - ₹500
  - Appa Seve: (A special offering of fried rice-balls/dumplings, very popular in this region).
- Special Rituals: During the annual Brahmakalashotsava, grand rituals like Maha Rudrayaga and Ashtottara Narikela Ganapathi Yaga are performed.

Note: Exact charges fluctuate; it is recommended to check the current 'Seva List' at the temple counter.

Festivals & Facilities

- Annual Festival: The Rathotsava (Chariot Festival) and the Brahmakalashotsava are the most significant events, attracting thousands of devotees.
- Annasantarpane: The temple provides free mass feeding (Prasadam) daily at noon for all devotees.
- Accommodation: The temple has basic guest house facilities (Yatri Nivas). For more comfort, many stay in budget hotels in Padubidri or nearby Kaup.

Donations & Bank Details

The temple is often managed by a hereditary board of trustees or the Muzrai department.

- Account Name: Sri Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple Trust (Verify locally for current account numbers).
- CSR/Development: Recent renovations were funded through local contributions and CSR initiatives.

More info:

The Sri Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple in Padubidri is currently in a state of high spiritual energy, having just commenced its major Brahmakalashotsava and renovation festivals in late April 2026.

Deep History & Legends

The temple is a cornerstone of Tulunadu heritage, with a legacy exceeding 1,100 years.

- The Sage & The Stone: Legend credits Bhrugu Maharshi with the installation of the Mahalingeshwara (Shiva Linga). The Mahaganapathi idol, carved from rare Rudrakshi Shila (stone), dates back to the 11th century and stands about 2.5 feet tall.
- The Shepherd's Devotion: Folk tradition says shepherd children first worshipped a clay Ganapathi idol here. Their pure devotion eventually led to the establishment of the permanent stone temple.
- The British Official's "Appa Seve": A famous local story tells of a British officer whose horse refused to pass the temple. Realizing he had failed to show respect, the officer offered Pottappa (rice and coconut dumplings) to the Lord, after which the horse moved. This "Appa Seve" remains the temple's most famous offering.

Architecture & Deities

The temple is a classic example of Gajaprashta style (resembling the back of an elephant) often found in coastal Karnataka.

- Structure: It features a traditional sloping tiled roof and a central open courtyard supported by heavy wooden pillars.
- Deities:
  - Main: Lord Mahalingeshwara and Ishtasiddhi Mahaganapathi.
  - Udayadri Ganapathi: A separate shrine where the first rays of the sun fall on the idol.
  - Khadgeshwari (Vanadurga): Located in a nearby sacred grove (Brahmasthana) where the floor is natural beach sand.

Rituals & Seva Charges (Estimated 2026)

Daily rituals follow the Trikala Pooja system (Morning, Afternoon, Evening).

| Seva / Pooja           | Estimated Charge (₹) | Significance                                       |
|------------------------|----------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| Appa Seve              | ₹150 – ₹300          | The most iconic offering (rice dumplings).         |
| Ganapathi Homam        | ₹250 – ₹500          | Performed every morning for prosperity.            |
| Panchamrutha Abhisheka | ₹100 – ₹200          | Performed for the Shiva Linga.                     |
| Rangaspooja            | ₹1,500 – ₹3,000      | A grand lighting ceremony (usually evening).       |
| Kartika Deepotsava     | Varies               | Special oil lamp lighting in the month of Kartika. |

Major Festivals

1. Brahmakalashotsava (April/May): Occurring right now (late April 2026). It involves a grand "Hore Kanike" (procession of offerings) from thousands of devotees across Karnataka.
1. Rathotsava (Annual Chariot Festival): Usually held in March. The deity is taken out in a grand wooden chariot.
2. Dakkebali: A unique ritual held once every two years at the nearby Brahmasthana, involving "Pathris" (possessed oracles) and traditional music.
1. Ganesh Chaturthi: Celebrated with great pomp, reflecting the temple's origins.

Guidance for Devotees

Do's

- Dress Code: Traditional attire is preferred. Men are often required to remove shirts before entering the Garbagriha (sanctum) area.
- Annasantarpane: Do partake in the afternoon Prasadam meal (typically 12:30 PM – 2:30 PM); it is considered a blessing.
- Circumambulation: Always walk clockwise around the sanctum.

Don'ts

- Photography: Strictly prohibited inside the inner sanctum.
- Mobile Phones: Keep them on silent or switched off.
- Waste: Being near a "Blue Flag" beach area, the temple maintains high cleanliness standards; avoid littering.

Administrative Contacts

- Hereditary Trustee: Shri Rathnakar Arasu (98453-85032)
- Manager/Office: Shri Gururaj Bhat (94482-52801)
- General Office: 0820-2555174

This temple is particularly busy during the current May 2026 festival season, so if you plan to visit for a specific Seva, calling ahead to book is highly recommended.

SRI MAHALINGESHWARA MAHAGANAPATHI TEMPLE, PADUBIDRI A Complete Devotee's Guide

1. LOCATION & ADDRESS

Sri Mahaganapati Sri Mahalingeshwara Temple is located at Padubidri, a small town near Udupi, on the western side of National Highway 17 (now NH 66). It is at a distance of 35 km from Mangalore and 25 km from Udupi. The temple is administered by the Muzurai Department of the Government of Karnataka. (Pureprayer)

Just half a kilometer from the south of the Padubidri bus stand is the Sri Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple. (Udupipages)

PIN Code: 574 111, Udupi District, Karnataka

Phone: +91-820-2555174

Email: mgtemple.padubidri@gmail.com

2. HOW TO GET THERE

National Highway 66 (earlier known as NH 17) passes through Padubidri. All express private buses ply to Padubidri from Mangalore to Udupi and Karkala, connecting the three major cities en route to Padubidri due to the junction of the major highway NH 66 (towards Mangalore and Udupi) and KA SH 1 (towards Karkala). (Wikipedia)

By Road: Padubidri is easily accessible from Mangalore (35 km) and Udupi (25 km) via NH 66. Buses and auto-rickshaws are readily available.

By Rail: The nearest railway stations are Mulki (about 5 km) and Surathkal (17 km). Udupi and Mangalore Junction are the major railheads.

By Air: Mangaluru International Airport is approximately 45 km away.

3. GREATNESS OF THE TEMPLE

The shrine is dedicated to Lord Shiva and Ganesha. Lord Parashuram consecrated the Ganesha murti, which is carved on Rudrakshi Stone. The murti of Ganesha is 2.5 feet tall. The utsava murti, or processional deity, in the temple is also more than 1,000 years old. Ganesha worshipped here is known as Ishtasiddhi Maha Ganapati as he fulfills the wishes of His devotees. (Hindu Blog)

The Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple honors Lord Shiva as Mahalingeshwara and Lord Ganesha as Mahaganapathi, with origins tied to ancient local patronage. (Grokopedia)

Padubidri is situated on the west coast of Karnataka in Udupi District. It is famous for its ancient temples, festivals, and the Padubidri beach. In Tulu language it is known as Paddedra, and the place was ruled by the Ballalas. (itslife.in)

4. LEGENDS & HISTORY

It is said that Bhrgu Maharshi installed the idol of Mahalingeshwara. The idol of Lord Ganapathi is about 2.5 feet tall and has been carved out of Rudrakshi Shila (stone). Researchers claim that the bronze utsava-murthy is at least 1,000 years old and the idol of Ganapathi probably belongs to the 11th century AD. (Udupipages)

A charming legend surrounds the famous Pottappa Seva: a British official's horse refused to move forward when the official declined to seek the darshan of Lord Mahaganapathi. Recognizing his mistake, he immediately offered Pottappa Seva (a dish prepared by grinding rice and coconut) to the Lord for the first time. Since then, it has become a tradition of offering Pottappa. (Udupipages)

Katahadappa was a traditional seva offered by Shivalli Brahmin families of this region. But now other devotees also offer 'Katahadappa Seve' on the next day after the traditional offering is made. (Udupipages)

5. ARCHITECTURE OF THE TEMPLE

The temple is built in the typical coastal area style, complete with sloping tiled roofs, an open courtyard supported by pillars, and in the center is the sanctum sanctorum. (itslife.in)

A lot of developmental activities have been taking place in the Temple — a Kalyana Mantap, intricately carved Garbha Gudi (sanctum sanctorum), spacious Temple square, Sarovara (pond), and Jnaana Kendra have attracted people from all corners of the district. The Ganapathi idol is adorned with a silver kavacha and the sanctum sanctorum has also been given a silver coating. (Udupipages)

The famous temple chariot (Ratha) used during festivals is noted for its grand size and intricate carvings.

6. PRESIDING DEITIES

Main Deity: Sri Mahalingeshwara (Lord Shiva in the form of a Shivalinga, believed to have been installed by Sage Bhrigu)

Principal Attraction: Sri Mahaganapathi — a 2.5-feet idol carved in Rudrakshi Shila, consecrated by Lord Parashuram; worshipped as Ishtasiddhi Maha Ganapati (fulfiller of all wishes)

7. SUB-DEITIES & NEARBY SHRINES WITHIN PADUBIDRI

Besides the popular Mahalingeshwara and Mahaganapathi Temple, Padubidri has gained historical importance with three other shrines of Lord Ganapathi — Bala Ganapathi, Udayadri Ganapathi, and Kittimane Ganapathi. (Udupipages)

Bala Ganapathi (also called Gudde/Kombottu Ganapathi): The Bala Ganapathi shrine is just half a km from Padubidri bus stand. The clay idol is installed on Ganesha Chowthi every year, worshipped till Navarathri, and dissolved in the sea on Vijaya Dashami. (Udupipages)

Udayadri Ganapathi: A saint who was on his way to Gokarna found an idol of Lord Ganapathi here. The family that installed the idol chose a spot from where the rising sun was visible, hence the name Udayadri Ganapathi. In a Nagabana adjacent to this shrine there is a granite sculpture of Lord Ganapathi probably belonging to the ninth century. (Udupipages)

Kittimane Ganapathi: There is a shrine at Padubidri Bengre, where Lord Ganapathi is being worshipped by a Brahmin family of Kittimane, belonging to the Gangu Royal family. A clay idol is installed on Ganesha Chaturthi and worshipped for at least 10 days before it is dissolved into the sea. (Udupipages)

Sri Khadgeshwari Brahmasthana: A sacred grove dedicated to Goddess Vanadurga (Khadgeshwari/Nagavesthithe), closely associated with the temple.

8. DAILY RITUALS & POOJAS

The daily holy rituals begin at 4:30 AM and go on till 2 PM, then resume from 4 PM to 8 PM in the evening. (Udupipages)

Rice Naivaidyam (offerings) of 14 kgs of rice, Pottappa Seve, and Panchakajjaya Seve are offered on a daily basis. Musical instruments like Vaalaga, Dholu, Gante, and Didumbu are brought from the Sadri Temple for the offerings at local Brahmasthanas. (Udupipages)

Regular Sevas offered:

Pottappa Seve – rice and coconut preparation, a historic tradition

Panchakajjaya Seve – the Lord's favourite sweet offering, presented when vows are fulfilled

Katahadappa Seve – offered by Shivalli Brahmin families (and now open to all)

Ganahoma, Sathya Ganapathi Vrata, and Kadubu Seve are the most popular sevas performed regularly at this temple. (Udupipages)

Samoochika Annasantarpana Seva – mass feeding from devotee deposits

Special day poojas: Special celebrations and poojas take place on Sankashtahara Chaturthi, Ganesha Chowthi, and on other auspicious days. (Udupipages)

Note: Specific charges for each seva are subject to revision. Please contact the temple office at +91-820-2555174 or mgtemple.padubidri@gmail.com for the current seva schedule and fees.

9. SPECIAL POOJAS & RITUALS

Mahaganayaaga – A grand offering involving 1,008 coconuts, conducted on Margashira Chauthi (Vrashchika masa).

Katahadappa – A welfare-oriented special pooja.

Daily Annasantharpane for the benefit of visiting devotees was started recently. (Udupipages)

10. MAJOR FESTIVALS

1. Maha Rathotsava (Chariot Festival): The grandest annual festival, drawing large crowds. The temple chariot procession is the highlight.

2. Chendu Seve (Ball Game Festival): The Chendu Seve takes place the day after the Maha Rathotsava. Every year the members of the Paande Saana family offer a ball made from the skin of goat or sheep, and two teams — Tenku and Badagu — play the game in the Saakar style for an indefinite time. Thousands of devotees participate as audience and players. (Udupipages)

3. Ganesha Chaturthi: Major celebrations with special poojas.

4. Maha Shivaratri: Among the most important festivals observed here are Shivratri, Ganesh Chaturthi, and Meena Sankranti temple festival. (Hindu Blog)

5. Dakkebali (Biennial Festival): The Dakkebali rituals commence with a grand procession from the Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple in Padubidri town, where participants carry offerings of fruits, flowers, tender coconuts, and pingara (areca tree flowers) over a kilometer to the Brahmasthana site. This ritual is held in odd years (2025, 2027, etc.). (Grokopedia) Just before the procession, "Anna Santrapane" (serving of food) is held, in which thousands of people take part. (itslife.in)

11. FACILITIES FOR DEVOTEES

- Kalyana Mantap (Marriage Hall): Available for booking for auspicious functions.
- Sarovara (Temple Pond)
- Jnaana Kendra (Knowledge Centre)
- Daily Prasad/Anna Santarpane: Free food for devotees.
- Spacious temple square (prangana)

For dedicated pilgrim accommodation, the temple itself does not appear to run a dedicated choultry, but Padubidri town has lodges and residencies within walking distance (see Section 14 below). Contact the temple office for any updated accommodation assistance.

12. DONATIONS & BANK INFORMATION

The temple is under the Muzurai (Hindu Religious Institutions & Charitable Endowments) Department, Government of Karnataka.

A plan has been prepared for renovating this Temple at a cost of Rs 1.25 crore. (Udupipages)

About Padubidri

Padubidri is situated on the west coast of Karnataka in Udupi District. It is famous for the ancient temples, festivals, Padubidri end point, and the Padubidri beach.

In Tulu language it is known as Paddedra and the place was ruled by the Ballalas.

The famous temples are Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi temple, Khadgeshwari Brahmasthana, Bala Ganapathi, Kittimane Ganapathi, and Udayadri Ganapathi.

 Historical Sites & Buildings

A ninth century Ganesha idol sculpted in granite is installed in a Nagabana / Snake garden. I feel it is the chosen place of Lord Ganesha, and why not!?, the place is beautiful with wild flowers, lush paddy fields, fertile land, and Arabian sea.

Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple

This temple is right beside Padubidri bus stop. The temple is built in the typical coastal area houses complete with sloping, tiled roof, an open courtyard supported by pillars and in the center is the sanctum sanctorum. The temple is dedicated to Shri Mahalingeshwara / Lord Shiva and Ishtasiddhi Mahaganapathi / Lord Ganesha. Ishtasiddhi means the one who fulfills the wishes of the devotees.

The temple is one thousand years old with beautiful carvings. The annual car festival is held during December-January and during this time the chariot is pulled around the temple with fireworks display.

The idol of Mahalingeshwara was installed by sage Bhrugu Maharshi. The idol of Lord Ganapathi belongs to the 11th century and it is about 2.5 feet tall. The idol has been carved out of Rudrakshi Shila (stone). The bronze utsava murthy is found to be 1000 years old. People consider it auspicious to start an event with a visit and offering to Lord Ganapathi. Everyday devotees are served food at the temple in the afternoon.

Timings: The daily holy rituals begin at 4.30 am till 2:00 pm and again from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm.

Folklore

A British official was riding in front of the temple, the horse stopped and refused to move further as the officer did not take the darshana of the Lord. The officer realized his folly and offered Pottappa (a dish prepared using rice and coconut) to the Lord. From then on, a seva / service known as Pottappa Seva was started.

Khadgeshwari Brahmasthana temple

This is a very unusual temple and a very sacred place. There is no temple structure for the deity. The presiding deity is Khadgeshwari / Vanadurga and as the name suggests, this sacred place is in the midst of a forest with the floor covered with beach sand. The idol is installed below a huge tree.

An event known as Dakkebali is held once in two years. Dakke is a bronze and leather instrument. It is placed in the holy shrine and then played by a possessed pathri, who moves in rounds. Devotees carry offerings to the goddess known as Hore Kanike / Pude from the Mahalingeshwara Mahaganapathi Temple to the Brahmasthan in a long procession. Fruits, flowers, tender coconuts and so on are part of the offerings. Just before the procession "Anna Santrapane" / serving of food is held, in which thousands of people take part.  Historical Sites & Buildings

Bala Ganapathi

A very endearing temple dedicated to Bala Ganapathi / Young Ganesha is situated in Padubidri. It is also known as Gudde Ganapathi and Kombottu Ganapathi.

Folk lore says that the shepherd children bought a clay idol of Ganapathi and started worshipping. Later the idol would be immersed. A Brahmin started offering pooja to the Lord and it became a permanent temple with a stone idol.

Udayadri Ganapathi

Udayadri Ganapathi Shrine is situated near the Bala Ganapathi shrine. The idol was found by a sage on his way to Gokarna. This idol was installed in a place, where the rays of the rising sun are visible, hence it was known as Udayagiri Ganapathi.

Kittimane Ganapathi

This is another temple, started by playful children by installing a clay idol during Ganesha Chaturthi festival. A permanent idol is now installed and the Brahmin family from Kittimane belonging to Gangu Royal family worship the lord.
